Nod and Ravashaw, Im more of a night person but if you specifically want vehicles then it would have to be GDI's APC. Much smaller and sleeker than nods giving it an advantage on maps such as City. Although it doesnt have much firepower, it works great on light armored vehicles and infantry, also its quick manuverability and turret allow you to leave and enter battles as you wish. The turret is also nice with its 360 degree rotation and it's ability to fire in any direction, allowing the driver to fend itself from pesky aircraft!
