That is the kind of nonsense story I would expect FOX to run to get away from actual issues like the Downing Street Hearings, or the Terri Schiavo autopsy which proves they were lying the whole time, or any major news that comes out of Iraq at all, excluding,

"Today 2 U.S. marines were killed in Iraq during their valiant fight against the terrorists who attacked the world trade center on that fateful day of September the 11th. All Americans who support ending terror in the U.S. and abroad should rally behind the Iraq war or be court-marshalled for high treason."
