Ok i was just wondering, when i log on to rengaurd it signs to the first server, and when i get to westwood, and the renegade servers/games, i have perfet connection....4mb top, and a gring ping thats in the high 40's. when i start a game my ping is in the 100's. I can play for most of the game, but towards the end i start to lag! why? I hearded over the chat you can change your internet settings to t1/cable or something to that effect. is that true? It would be nice if someone will tell me. Thank you.
