I'd try and join a Halo clan. . .if I didn't suck so badly at it. It's not even really a matter of me sucking, actually. It's the fact that in contrast, I suck. Once or twice on some random Heavy Weapons server, I got 1st Place due to the fact I killed, like. . .everyone. . .with Spanker Rocket Launchers.(Ie, the point of "Heavy Weapons".) But then again, that was the only weapon available. And the only reason I got 1st place was because neither team was able to score in that match.(It was a Capture match.) But I'm babbling on.
