Talk about abusive, we don't visit that because most of you angry little power hungry twelve year old can't realize that people actually work for their servers.

The last time I saw, which was about 1 minute ago, Wilo was an Op on our servers. So piss off. The fact is, he abused his power by knocking us off of the n00bstories server (NOT the MP IRCd). He had no right to do so even if we were using "MP" in front of our names.

I own, run, and pay for a server. I shell out $150 every month for my server. I earn the money that I use to pay for it, so don't give me any of your bullshit.

I don't care if wilo is a fucking admin or not, you still never gave him credit for his mod, did you? Nope.
