Look. Just because he's French doesn't give him an excuse to use u'r to mean "your," as in "something that belongs to you."

English people likewise get bitched at. Luckily, the English language is very forgiving and people easily tolerate horrible misuse of words. And I know Spanish.

C, is k relidad no? Lol pork u no cpomren mi palbros? Posible q no use bein? Yo uso compdora bueno! Crayo k 2 r'es n00blar. n00bism a otro lengwa no xcusa retardismo. C no prendo Inglis bein, sa-k traduceer =B

Wow, that felt really retarded to write. It was my attempt to write Spanish the way you write English. Anybody out there know Spanish or natively speak it? Try reading that. It's how I feel when I read this DarKSiDe guy's posts, except he is a lot more atrocious with how he phrases stuff and makes up new contractions. If you don't know a language well, you have absolutely no place making up your own freeform abbreviations and contractions. Especially when you don't need a contraction in the first place.
