j_ball430 wrote on Tue, 30 August 2005 09:59 You realize you just contradicted yourself, right? You're against abortion, yet you wish SFL's parents had aborted him?

Not necessarily.

For example, if a person is against "animal testing" but person "b" is being a dick, and person "a" replies with something like, "I hate animal testing, but i wish you were tested on to see what it felt like" That comment is out of anger/frustration. It does not mean he likes animal testing, same thing here with the abortion crap here.

Btw, wishing someone was aborted is extremely mean...i cant think of any other thing that would upset me more then someone telling me i was a reject/mistake or shouldve been aborted.

Now, i hate the idea of abortion, in my opinion its as good as killing a baby, how could a person (in his right mind) live withthemselves after performing/agreeing to an abortion? the idea to me is abosolutely ludicrous.

Ask yourself, wouldnt it be better to just give the baby up for adoption? there are willing PARENTS who would love a baby for their own maybe be cause they are having troubles of their own.

Hell, i think even up for an orphange is better then abortion, why? because at least then you gave the baby a CHANCE in life which all beings human or animal have the right to have.

When you take away a chance in life, you might as well be a criminal.

Its ridiculus how many teens/young adults get abortions mainly because they arent ready for a child/the responsibility (they kinda go hand in hand), well hunny, you should have thought about that the night you were horney and wanted some action.

Its called CONDOMS/SPERMICIDE/BIRTH CONTROL.

Final thought:

If your not ready for a baby, then dont have unprotected sex, use protection one way or another.

When you chose abortion, you chose a topic that is felt by many, to be criminal and wrong.

So remember to think things out throughly before you chose one path or another.
