sounds pretty close to what happened as I seen it also. My bad for not paying attention to the "hold position" I did not relealize I was hitting the tank. again my bad. I did not think I was arguing, however, I could see where one would think I was complaining. My whole point was Mahkra died from the c4 blast and another gdi player had an oppertunity to jump into the open tank. For some reason he did not jump into the tank. I was asking him why he did not jump in the tank, I was not asking mahkra anything, it was another player I was asking. Then I got pm'ed by viper, who was pretty angry with me about losing Mahkra's tank.

Anyways I do apologize, it says whine free server and I was whining,it is your server, your rules, and I won't cause trouble when allowed back in.

again, sorry
