No no no, he said "From EA" and so i looked on the web page for those exact words together. I didnt find them, and i didnt look at this topic's name. Thats what i was getting at.

You're a bad liar.

I dont lie. Often. And not about this. I didnt look at this topic's title for the words, and i only saw the first few when i looked at it for the first time, so i didnt know that theyre were the words "From EA" in the name of this topic, until Nightma provided an image.
