You are all saying how hard it is to find him but it really isn't. He hangs out on numerous IRC servers and a lot of people could tell you at least one you could find him on. He also has accounts on many forums (including this one) you could send him a PM requesting a serial. I haven't talked to him about this so I don't know his reasons why he doesn't want to give them out but they are his to do what he pleases with. If he wants to be the one to give them out instead of BHS, deal with it. If all you want is for people to be able to get serials easily then make a sticky telling people to contact adad and have a link to PM him or something. Even if they have to wait a few days it is better than not getting a serial at all. For all you know he may eventually get tired of everyone bugging him for serials and decide to give you some but the more everyone insults him the less chance there is of him giving serials to anyone.

Way to disregard everything we've stated. Let's recap:

- 1) The average person won't know that Adad is the one to get in contact with
 - 2) The average person won't know where to contact Adad
 - 3) The average person might not be liked by Adad
 - 4) Are they really "his to do what he pleases with"? Will he really use that many FDS serials? If not, then I think most of us here will agree that they're not exactly "his to do what he pleases with"
 - 5) The ones asking for the multitude of serials (BHS) are NOT the ones whom are insulting him.
 - 6) Humiliation is something you face every day, especially when you have done shifty things that you could regret later and wish to come clean.
