2) The average person won't know where to contact Adad

As I said, BHS could post a way to contact Adad, the only reason not to do that would be if they wanted the credit for giving out serials. I won't argue with the fact that it would be easier to get them if BHS had them but it doesn't look like that is going to happen.

Quote:3) The average person might not be liked by Adad

He told Crimson that if she sent people to him, he would give them serials. If that person does something to annoy Adad then it is their own fault they won't get one from him. A lot of the time he is AFK on IRC so send him a PM or leave a message for him on IRC and wait.

Quote:4) Are they really "his to do what he pleases with"? Will he really use that many FDS serials? If not, then I think most of us here will agree that they're not exactly "his to do what he pleases with"

You seem to have completely missed my point. I am not arguing about whether he should have that many serials. I am just saying that he is in possession of them and EA is not going to do anything about it. For all intents and purposes those serials are his and he decides what is done with them.

Quote:5) The ones asking for the multitude of serials (BHS) are NOT the ones whom are insulting him.

Yes, and I commend crimson and Blazer for telling people not to insult Adad. I am sure Crimson had good intentions but Adad already told her what he would/would not do. To me this just looks like an attempt to humiliate/shame him into giving her serials. Instead of continuing to harass him she could just send people to him.

Quote:6) Humiliation is something you face every day, especially when you have done shifty things that you could regret later and wish to come clean.

I am not Adad and cannot speak for him, I am just telling you how I see things. I know the more people posted crap about me and "humiliated" me, the less chance there would be of them getting something from me.
