Their service blows, they screw you on every turn they can, they won't honor their warranties, they over charge, their phones a garbage, and they will lie to your face. In the time I was with that company they NEVER did anything good for me. I hated it so much that I finally coughed up the $275 fee to break my contract. I suggest US-Cellular and get a LG phone. I have both and have been VERY happy since I left that god forsaken company.

Sounds like T-Mobile.
