That video was just about everything EVERYONE already does. EVERYBODY disables beacons, and drives by empty medium tanks....

Why did you show us a clip of that?? WOW....empty tank. And boy did those minigunners kick your ass. No matter what you did, if you encountered a minigunner, he kicked your ass.

WOW look, i can repair the barracks!

Anyway, im uploading your video so others can see this crap.

The beacon disarms were setups. He had one friend on Nod who would set the beacons, and then C4 himself while this DumbHeavy guy disarmed the beacons.

I don't know how that's supposed to be impressive.

In one scene his friend is a sniper, watching him from the Hand of Nod window while he calmly disarms. Yeah, because that really happens in a game; the GDI sniper just watches you disarm his beacon.
