i really like Avant. IE (Wrapper ?)

It uses IE, so its not all buggy, but uses Tabs for mulitple windows, and has a load of features added in.

A screenshot of the Opera browser window. The title bar says "Renegade Public Forums: General Discussion => Opera now Free - Avant Browser". The menu bar includes File, Edit, View, Navigation, Groups, Favorites, Feeds, Tools, Windows, and Help. The toolbar has icons for Back, Forward, Stop, Refresh, and Home. The address bar shows "Address: http://www.renegadeforums.com/index.php". The main content area displays a forum post with a red header and a black background. The post includes text like "skies.above", "There is but one truth. If you avert your eyes from", and "Re: Opera now Free [message #172546 is a reply to...". A right-click context menu is open over the post, with "Disable Videos" highlighted. The menu also includes options like Translate, Mail, Clear Records, Proxy, Skins, Interface Language, and various blocking and disablement options.
