ok ok ok... heres how we want it to go so its n00b proof. The pistol will be turned into a flag that will not allow any more damage to be done. (if it is possible) We want to make a paddywagon (police cop car) that both teams can enter. And we will use the key card mod so only our team can open the door for the enemy.

About the upload button on the site Jball430 is working on it and it should be up soon.
