kawolskyis there a quicker and easier way?

As everyone else has mentioned above, you can type "/r <message>" to reply once you have already been paged.

Alternatively, i guess you could use RenAutocomplete if you're regularly paging different people outside the game. Set a preset to replace "pdave" with "/page daver0x93". Just make sure you don't have autoenter on so you can still type your message. I've already setup loads of preset shortcuts to locate/invite my mates into the game.
