81) ARGUMENT FROM INEVITABILITY (This one is for Javaxcx)

(1) I have proof that God exists.

(2) I won't bother to tell you what it is because, being Atheists, you would be hostile to the conclusion anyway.

(3) Therefore, God exists.

What? I've shown THAT God is, simply not HOW He is. The former is what is important for this discussion. The latter I haven't even touched on outside the assumption that I don't think that anyone can know anything supernatural using natural laws.
