I saw a skin somewhere, i don't remeber where, where it made that soldiers (bots), try and dodge bullets, like keep push A and D, it was wondering if i could get a mod like that? i guess this is more of a request...

also, if you holding, V down, and look att the way to the side, could someone make something, that your entire screen start to turn? like if they're going around in circles around you, can can stil follow them. this would really help me out.

I'm a sniper. i Don't know if your realized.
