While we're at it, let's legalize robbery. After all, even though its illegal people still do it, and because it is illegal its not safe and people get killed trying to do it.

If it were legal than people wouldn't need to take bystanders hostage when they rob banks. They wouldn't need to get into gun battles with police, since the police wouldn't be able to stop them. Store employees wouldn't have to worry about getting shot by the robbers, the thieves wouldn't have to worry about getting shot by police, and police wouldn't have to worry about getting shot in the course of their duty. If everyone could just walk into a bank and say "Give me all your money!" then society would be a much safer place. Wouldn't that be wonderful?
