The European WOL server also had lots of european based servers on it as those are much cheaper (and many european companies just seem to always mess up running Renegade servers). So it doesn't matter much.

Also, USA-based servers give you ping around 200 but don't lag necessarily. A stable 200 ping is better than a ping going from 60 to 190 all the time. Stability is more important.

Welcome back at rene!
