Could someone please explain me, why only warning him? He is intentionally spamming the forums, trying to screw up the general discussion.

He isn't just some dumb guy who makes one stupid post, thinking it's a bit smarter. Or a guy who try's to show e-penis by flaming/ discussing topics. He has posted multiple threads, with only one purpose and that is screwing up the forums. He has no real purpose and can join the other people like the old fatazz.
