Alright, let's get a few things straight here:

(1) Ikaika has been owning people in sniper servers since LONG before the cheats even came out. He's a good sniper. End of story. Anyone that has been around since demo and has played in a quality clanwar can tell you the guy is not some n00b looking for a way around RenGuard.

(2) RenGuard and every other mod tool out there has known problems with it. Especially the locator feature. NOT TO MENTION people *ALWAYS* (strong use of an absolute, I know) end up setting up their bots either (a) wrong -or- (b) inconsistent with another one of their servers or the way it was designed to be used. There is bound to be discrepancies here and there and ultimately all it ends up being is a judgement of character. If you're a no-name then I feel sorry for you because no one is going to stand up for you. But if you've been around long enough people will know you're good - and they will stand up for you. Like I am for Ikaika.

(3) Caveman, whether you intended to accuse him of cheater or not, you did. You were exceptionally suggestive. And if you create a suggestive thread like that on a public forum -- you might as well come out and make a bold accusation. If you didn't intend on making him look like he's cheating (or using some method of deception) then you wouldn't have gone out of your way to post any of this. Now, I have no problem with you personally (or anyone here for that matter) --- BUT I do have a problem with "oldschoolers" arguing in front of the n00bs about "who is more l33t". It's 110% insane to even argue about that this day and age. The competitive age of Renegade is dead. End of story. People clanwar, 1v1, etc ... whatever ... but saying someone is better than someone is an understatement. The game has been around long enough for n00bs to become elite and elite to lose their touch. It's also been out long enough for hackers/modders to figure out ways to cheat - and go around un-detected. You just never know anymore. UNLESS you have a vouch of character.

This whole thread is really quite stupid, IMHO. If you have an issue with a person - address it with that person. And if you think they're cheating, come out and say it or ask someone on BHS to research it. Don't start flamewars that are just going to hurt a bunch of people's feelings and get them worked up. This community is still alive because there is some good left in it. Let's not forget that. Lets not ruin that.

FINALLY -- I cannot remember who it was that went on a "RTE" bashing fest (suggesting they cannot win a clanwar) ... but (1) that has nothing to do with this thread (2) RTE has a long standing history of victories. The renegade division of RTE may not CURRENTLY be what it was a year or so ago, but for one to suggest that RTE is incapable of winning a clanwar is simply ignorant. I surely hope that was not the suggestion.

I digess...

I think that's all I need to say (lol).
