And apparently the problem is so bad that many of the members have considered splitting from the clan.

why do I get the feeling you're making this up as you go?

fI00d3d wrote on Sat, 17 December 2005 11:44Meanwhile, you have a group of individuals called RTE which takes the focus off of ego-driven individuals and competition ... and puts the spotlight on people that have proven to be honest, trustworthy, and do not need to be baby sat. So why is Ikaika in it? I remember him getting kicked from NoN00bs because he just wouldn't stop lag killing everyone, then he posted a bunch of crap about how "we can't handle getting owned by the best sniper in renegade"... sorry, but SBBO is not the same as actual skill.

Didn't say I was (unlike most of RT-E)... but good job trying to change the subject.
