RenardinI am off this place. Recently, a lot of events such as leak and bashing made me think about leaving. I won't post here much, I might sometimes but at a minimal scale. I just feel like spending 100% of my mod time to the textures for the mod. You will still hear about me on the news for some awesome works...

Now if I can ask you something:

Be nice with the team, we do a lot of effort for this. Consider we work on it as much as we can and that we have lives to deal with. We aren't paid for this. It's more a passion and a hobby for us. We are dedicated to this mod and we will finish it. I will put my efforts for a release as soon as we can even if it's only maps with infantry battles.

At last!
