Another test lacking a suitable option that is anything other than "yes" or "no." I wish somebody would allow for the possibility that someone could actually not give a flying fuck about some issues (i.e. think that they are either not relevant at all) or come down somewhere in between the left wing/right wing views. In other words, the test is rigged so that you CANNOT come down in the middle of anything.

Here's the funny part...I voted "disagree" or "strongly disagree" with anything that involved government subsidies or arbitrary regulation, and the damn thing STILL pegs me as an off-the-deep-end Liberal. I'd love to see exactly how THAT works out, because those choices alone ought to peg me somewhere on the more conservative side...the data:

Social Liberal

(78% permissive)*schniff schniff... * BULLSHIT!

Economic Liberal

(30% permissive)

"Strong Democrat"

You exhibit a very well-developed sense of Right and Wrong and believe in economic fairness.

loc: (105, -75)

modscore: (18, 47)

raw: (2244)

Hells, just seeing that Nodbugger came out as a "centrist" ought to tell you that something's wrong with the test...the results seem disproportionately LEFT of where they probably should be.
