Last night I un-installed Renegade to get rid of my skins (I had a lot and I couldn't remember all the names) so when I went to reinstall RenGuard, I had constant errors, and disconnections to where I couldn't even launch Renegade even without RenGuard! Not to mention all the errors It went through just trying to install it! It took me until 12:00 to finish. Yeah that sucks.

P.S. I can't believe no one thought of using their actual names in the forums! I mean Allen, how original is that?!
