Hello everyone:

Today we are starting a new paradigm. By "we" I mean the server owners who participate in the Server Owners' forum here.

Basically no one knows who started the "AOW" abbreviation for playing NORMAL Renegade, but the actual name is "Command and Conquer Mode". So, we are starting a new trend to be correct, and instead of using AOW, we are using the new acronym CCM.

Personally, I am starting the trend by referring to my server as "AOW/CCM". Once a lot of people know what CCM stands for, it will become "CCM/AOW". Sometime after that, the "AOW" designation will be dropped entirely.

Join me or die!
