JRPereiral'm just saying I already know fun is a subjective term. Do I have to put "in my opinion" before I say anything that's questionable?

He don't, so you don't have to

Aside, He comments on work like everyone is/should be a professional and wants to be in that industry, don't take him seriously if your just a modder having fun in your spare time as a hobbie (it may ruin your modding experiences)
