-a bit offtopic-

Yes, I'm tired watching Snipers camping the whole round on CnC mode games. They don't need much skills by camping and killing spawners or players who are standing still for a few seconds in their base. These are most of the people who snipe on non-snip servers. Only a few can really snipe without camping in a safe place...

So I thought of setting up a real CnC mode server (formely AOW -I agree to Crimson) without snipers.
