I took a day off wednesday to finish what I want to do with it. You'll get the front page and an inside page if you like. It could be that we want some inside pages.

I just want to split the file into several files which will make it much easier to edit content later on.

This takes time if we want to do it correctly so please don't hurry things . You should be able to get what you asked by the 3th though.

Kpoka, could you get a closer look into the actionsript? I also decompiled it but I don't know anything about actionscripts .
