Okies, ive followed this topic for a while and i think its good to tell you bit about the story

Uberseksi/ SoQlony (the fake one as Danpaul said), aka Neo is a guy who was in our clan (theKOSs2) till 2 months ago. Goztow had indeed "Uberseksi" in his signature: Neo made this siggy for Goztow. Neo left the clan because of problems with members and the clan. However he didnt left quietly. Long story but in the end it was that he crashed our server, deleted everything on it etc etc. Thats where it started.

He decided to do an application for SoQ, but that application got declined. As DanPaul said above, Neo already took SoQionys name when WOL changed to XWIS. He only never used it. 3 Days ago he used that name and cheated with it (FR etc) He got banned on that server. IPs showed it was him.

Now I know he knows how to bypass RG. I know he has done it before with Bighead etc while he was still in our clan. Im 100% sure he knows how to do it...

Some of you may know, some of you may not. Years back (2 or something) you might have seen some guys ingame named "Plort". They cheated their asses off, kicking whole servers empty, team hampering etc etc. One of the "Plorts" was Neo/ Uberseksi.

When i read this topic i knew 100% sure its him. I also know he is cheating his ass off atm, because he doesnt like the Renegade community anymore. He cant show his face anymore without negative reactions. This is probably his last goodbye from Renegade.
