My mistake, I was under the impression we were talking about real-world scenarios.. When you get a hold of a mammoth tank, give me a buzz... However, it actually does invalidate the point.. If you're not willing to do it because of the "harm" or "effect" that it will cause, then you intentionally DO NOT do something because of how it will affect others. Swearing is no different.

If it's "Just a word", then why is it so important to use "those" words? blueberry is a word too; I don't see you calling everyone blueberries.
