I don't know who I stole this wallpaper from, but I like it. My desk is to messy to include. I like Doitle's desk the best, reminds me of home. Why did comrade and nineball pick on rubi? A $400 dual core processor for a gaming pc isn't impressive. Although, building a pc for $1500 does impress me. I see $1100 in just 3 items, plus PSU, MOBO, tower, cooling, HDD, maybe another HDD, OS, optical drives, sound card, and $8 floppy drive. Don't forget the floppy drive. Also, a new keyboard and mouse. I'm surprised the wireless mouse is so popular.

Kanezor, why so many s-video connections?

Crimson, Is that a Tornado table in your office? Seems like the noise would be to much for an office environment. Love the sound of a ball hissing across the table then slamming into the back of the goal. My wrist hurt just looking at it.
