And what is wrong with my post. Im asking nicely and im telling them there IS a problem that occurs randomly. I have had the new patch for when ever it came out and all of the sudden some people get corrupts and they have to be fixed. Its nice to LET them know that people are having issues. Your post is a wast of space.

Whats with the tardyness like they do a good job and theres nothing wrong with the softwear, but there is a flaw if the program miss gives out cheating tickets. Grow up.
