HA BITCH!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

I wish I found the fountan of youth and would live forever at the age of 22 so I could drink and all that good stuff, and I am immune to all forums of STD's. And I had super strength so I couldnt get stuck anywhere. And I wouldnt get sentined to life in prison cus I am above the law. Please be civil in my thread. It's one thing to clutter it up with nonsensical grant or wishes, but let's not do such in a derogatory term.

You find and drink from the fountain of youth at the excellent age of 22. You are now immune to all forms of STDs, have super strength, and cannot be arrested (being above the law). After two hundred years, aliens decide to take you aboard their spacecraft for study. They use ray-shields to prevent you from escaping. They begin their studies on a remote planet billions of lightyears away, on the verge of entering a black hole. GG.

I wish to have a mind/machine interface.
