For those of you who've been playing since the MP test should know my name.

I've been retired for quite some time now but every "best sniper" that came along I fought on private servers and won..

I had the best K/D ratio of any player..

I know I'll get flamed for this but I don't care, I don't play this game cause of the choppy netcode anymore and I probably will never come to this forum again but...

I was the best sniper this game had ever seen_._
