CrimsonDantethis is the stupidest thing i have ever seen...

"should we ban  for talking to much?"

"should we ban  for taking up too much space?"

"should we ban  for answering too many questions?"

"should we ban  for jerking off while he watches porno?"

"should we ban  because he is going to E3 and we aren't?"

this is getting gayer and gayer, if you need me, im at <http://forums.renevo.com>

Do you not remember the old forums? We couldn't get rid of people we didn't want around. I told everyone I would run these forums not so much a dictatorship as a democracy. Several people asked for him to be banned, so I used the poll to see where opinions truly lie. The poll for CaptKurt was the same. But, I didn't have to ban him either, because I think it helped him see how his peers here (as it were) felt about his antics and he's stepped off quite a bit. I hope to see a positive change in TheGunRun as well.

Wish I knew what I'd done to deserve such hateful treatment from you, though. Would've saved the typing to say "your forums suck, mine are better!"

do i like these forums, not really, all i ever see is retard fests and im better than you threads.

Did i at all promote my forum over yours? no, all i said was if you needed to contact me, go there.

Im not here to jerk anyone off, im here to play and mod the game, i don't give a shit about post counts, and i don't give a shit when people disagree with me, big deal, opinions are like assholes, everyone has one, and they all stink...

simply put, i was just saying that i don't see any need for me to be here on these forums if all that seems to be happening is a bunch of empty promises from a bunch of people who have no clue what they are doing, then PM, IM, something me to walk and DO over half the work for them.

I have always offered my knowledge to anyone who is willing to ask and pay attention to how to do it. I have never offered to whipe your asses through an entire mod, or be your "mysterious" extra person on your mod team.

Crimmy, it isn't personal, it is these posts, they don't really have alot of content, and they don't really feed my brain enough to keep my attention for longer than 2 posts.
