Setting aside the fact that I live in a spit of land that has a horrible DSL connection speed, is there any way to slow down the jumpiness.

- I run no programs in the background
- I am running no mod,skins, no extra features.
- I'm running ren-G and the right patches

Is there an add-on that I'm missing or anything. Even though the ping levels are showing as low, I got jumpiness.

Any idea's?
