OK, so im trying to host my server everything has been working, and now all of a sudden it starts saying

Creating game channel...

Failed to create game channel

Creating game channel...

Failed to create game channel

Creating game channel...

Failed to create game channel

Creating game channel...

Failed to create game channel

Creating game channel...

Failed to create game channel

says the same thing about 10 times then server shuts off anyone know what to do. Everything is configured right i have tripple checked everything. I erased everything, and re-installed the server. Nothing seems to help. anyone know what to do?
