I actually agree with the fact I shouldn't have corrected him there.
But do you always have time to look at a dictionary? No? I thought not.
If you come to the U.S. and don't know English, you'll suffer because of it, one way or the other.
Likewise, if you come to an English speaking forum, and don't know English, you'll suffer one way or the other. So no. Really all it means to me is that they've learned another language, which helps them not get completely screwed over.
