I thought this would make good discussion...possibly. So here it is.

I am playing Guild Wars and my friend sends me a message on Xfire telling me to watch this video on 9/11 he found on Google. (Wow, a video about 9/11 on the internet, probably edited, full of lies, or something of the sort). So I tell him I will watch it later because I am busy at the moment. As I am playing he messages me again saying that 9/11 was completely setup by our government to gain money because we are in debt so bad. He strongly believes that video proves it.

Anyway, I find it perposterous how someone can believe that. I laughed at him at his own stupidity.

(Yeah, right... our government would really destroy 2 of the United States most valuable buildings and kill all those innocent people)

I am curious as to what you all have to say.
