The reason ACK can't co-exist with people is because he has both a inferiority and superiority complex.

His inferiority complex: He tends to take all helpful advice as insulting or bitching. Therefore, he goes and throws a temper tantrum, calling people n00bs and other rude and racial names. After even telling other people, quite rudely, not to use caps, he turns around and writes a whole paragraph in caps at the person he tries to flame. This just shows he is a big fat baby who has lost his childhood because he had no parents to begin with.

His superiority complex: Since he is probably one of the best map makers for Renegade, he tends to boast, what he considers, "superiority". He tries to belittle every contributing member of the community so he could seem like the bigshot. Therefore increasing his reason to boast his "superiority" and make his ego quota 2x bigger. Yet, in all of this mess, he can't figure out that, in truth, he himself is just another contributing mapmaker for the community like o0commander0o or YSLMuffins.

In lamence terms: The Renegade Alert mod has fallen because of ACK not trying to work together with the community. Instead of healing the mod progress (like it should have), He made it fall by taking everything waaay to offensively, when it was just a simple question to being with.

To shorten that even more: Ack is a whiny little bitch who will never be able to find any mental health clinic, and he will go through the rest of his life with people thinking that he is a cornhole.

Now, for people who still don't understand: ACK's a straight up asshole. Plain and simple.
