Sir Phoenixx wrote on Tue, 25 April 2006 09:18 I'd also like upgrades for all buildings, like 3 or something max (depending on the tech level of the game you're in), rather it is an armor, capacity, build speed, etc. upgrade. You could go to the War Factory and choose two build capacity upgrades and an armor upgrade. Or the guard tower/turret and choose an armor upgrade, and a fire power and fire rate upgrade.

They should make these not only building status upgrades, but visual ones too. If I purchase an armor upgrade, I want to see reinforced steel, concrete, something, etc.
