So, Iran can have nukes when it signs the non-proliferation treaty? Doubtful.

Why? Because Iran is not the U.S., nor is it any of the U.S.'s historical allies, therefore the U.S. will feel (Or pretend to feel in order to have a somewhat proper pretense for war) threatened by Iraq having nukes.

Russia has nukes, why aren't we worried about them? WHAT ABOUT THE RUSSIANS MAN?!
What about China? Canada? THEY HAVE NUKES! LETS GO KICK CANADA'S ASS!!
