If such is the case, Havoc pwnz artys. He can lay down continual fire while approaching, forcing the tech to either keep repairing or lose the arty. A lone tech is just sniper fodder waiting to happen.

If its 1 vs 1 like you guys were saying, the havoc stands no chance.. The arty guy just has to shoot, repair back to full health(a technician repairs faster than a havoc can damage an arty), shoot, rinse, repeat.

The tech can fire, or he can repair, but he can't do both. If he doesn't repair, he loses the arty and has nothing to fire. If he doesn't fire, the arty gets stolen and he has nothing to repair. Either way;

Havoc > Arty
