Sounds like EA won't f*ck this up quite as much as usual, ss's look pretty cool so far-everything will probably look completely different come the release date though.

but why oh why won't they just pick up Renegade 2 again - or better yet, bring Westwood back and let them do it properly.

However good this game is I will still hate EA.

Exactly my point....but apperently alot of people on a FPS based games forums are asking for an RTS and praising a shity,shity company that ruined this FPS game, for making an RTS

And to whoever thinks I should be the one off renegade....PM me for 1vs1 aow or sniping and well see who needs to get off...
