And to whoever thinks I should be the one off renegade....PM me for 1vs1 aow or sniping and well see who needs to get off...

Oh wow!! You're good at sniping in a game that represents the difficulty of being a sniper just as well as it represents the power on a nuclear bomb...enjoy your game of jumping around and clicking.

Your "fact" that FPS is better than RTS is laughable.

You know what else is funny...people who use the excuse that ren sniping has no recoil etc, are shitty at sniping!

Realted? of course...
