Do you even research what you're arguing about?

http://www.blu-ray.com/players/

Blu-Ray players start off at ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS. A PS3 at 600 dollars is a fucking steal! The PS3 being nothing more than a face lift? The fact that it's a DVD\Blu-Ray player, a third generation gaming console with incredible graphics, and its large HD? That's nothing more than a facelift to you?

All I can say is that you're an idiot.
