Skier222AircraftkillerIt honestly looks pretty dull from those screenshots.

Isn't there anything interesting to it? The lighting and clouds make it look like there's a difficult time seeing, and the ground is just sand\ dirt... No mountains at all, even though there's mountain ridges.

Where's the trees? Assorted rocks and other objects? Lets see screenshots with that.

Ack if u read Dantes first message u would see that he said he only got the terrain done, which means its not done

So? That doesn't mean he can't comply with what I asked, getting screenshots of the fleshed out map.

It's also symmetrical, I just noticed that... :stern:
