LaeubiAs far I know that is an storie out of the bible about Kane and Able, where Kane killed his brother Able to get all the monex thei were promised to get if the do some work.

You find the whole storie at: 1. Mose(Genesis) 4, 1-16

I think it could be a small part out of the storie, maybe it is jsut some random symbols (I don't understand hebreic either )

Did you not read my post? And no, Cain didn't kill Able for money, jackass.

He killed him out of jealousy because Able's sacrifice was more pleasing to God. No, we don't know what the sacrifice was. Do some freaking research before posting.

Irony - > Laeubi's sig about stupid answers.
